The American Board of Quality Assurance and Utilization Review Physicians (ABQAURP) is a non-profit organization of over 10,000 physicians, nurses and other health care professionals. ABQAURP is known for its prestigious Health Care Quality Management (HCQM) Certification and high caliber educational programs. HCQM Certification is the only quality certification that is administered through the National Board of Medical Examiners® (NBME®). Earning this certification offers several benefits, including professional recognition for validated competence in the health care quality industry.

Accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), ABQAURP's Continuing Education (CE) conferences feature compelling presentations on health care topics presented by well-known, expert faculty in the industry. ABQAURP continuously works toward its goal of "Promoting Health Care Quality and Patient Safety Through Certification and Education."

This Corporate Membership program is designed for companies who share the same mission as ABQAURP. Companies and corporations affiliated with ABQAURP help to create a solid foundation to ensure a safer, more efficient and cost-effective system that better satisfies the needs of patients, providers, purchasers, and payers.
